SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Welcome to 92Y School of Music! We are so grateful that you are continuing your musical studies with us during these challenging times, and are looking forward to the fall semester!

The School of Music is currently continuing with remote private lessons. We will be re-evaluating the potential return to in-person lessons at the end of September. If we ascertain that in-person lessons can resume, we will notify both you and your teacher. If either student or teacher is not comfortable returning to the building for in-person lessons, the remote lessons will continue through the semester.

If you need assistance with anything, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Virtual office hours:

Monday thru Friday, 9am – 7pm

Email: music@92y.org

- PLEASE NOTE: Private lesson instructors will make up one lesson per semester missed by the student if 24-hour notice is given. Students are responsible for scheduling their makeup lesson with the instructor directly.
- Instructors are required to provide a substitute teacher or to make up lessons and/or classes they have cancelled.
- If you are unable to attend your lesson or class, please notify the teacher and the School of Music as soon as possible.
- Please refer to the School of Music term calendar (attached separately) for holiday and School closures. If you and your teacher wish to have a lesson on a listed holiday, you are welcome to do so while lessons are remote.
- Recitals are scheduled throughout the year. Currently, student recitals are taking place remotely over the Zoom platform. Private teachers will let students and families know when the student is ready to perform and offer you a number of date and time options.
- Dress code for recitals: This is a time to celebrate your hard work—please dress appropriately. No sneakers, T-shirts or jeans.
- We recommend Music Theory for all private lesson students; it accelerates and enhances private study. Tuition for theory classes is greatly reduced for students registered for private lessons.
- Benefits for 92Y School of Music students:
Tickets to classical concerts are available at a 50% discount to 92Y School of Music students.
- The School of Music refund and cancelation policy can be found at 92y.org/about-us/policies
